

Discrimination against Aboriginals and Torres Strait Islanders can happen because of someone's sexuality, HIV status, drug use, background or identity.

We are who we are or whoever we may choose to be. Our family is Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander and it is gay, lesbian, sistergirl and transgender.

We come from the same places you come from.

But wherever we come from, or whoever we are, we are proud.

We're your family too!

Aboriginal Family and Social Organisation
Torres Strait Community Organisation
Sistergirl Support Project
For further information: 02 8251 1871 www.afoao.org.au

www.austlii.org.au/au/other/afp/

Illustration by AFAAO
Inspired by Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Organisation

sistergirl • murri • queenie • dyke • koori • brotherboy • users • noongar • gay • nunga • hiv positive or negative • lesbian