

Staff at AIDS Councils and PLHIV Organisations have free access to the following learning options. These will be available on HOLA's online learning portal and Zoom:

eLearning Modules

These are self-paced learning modules that provide understanding on HIV for people working in the health sector. Each module should take approximately 30 mins to complete.

Online workshops – health promotion

These workshops are to give staff practical skills to work as a health promotion professional.

Online workshops – applying knowledge into practice

These workshops demonstrate how to apply the knowledge gained to your local context.

National Workforce Convenings

These sessions will be focus on emerging issues in HIV through discussions and panels from expert speakers.

Commissioned Papers

These papers will be available to you, followed by discussion and workshops to inform practice within communities.

Communities of Practice

Bringing together specific workforces from each jurisdiction to develop knowledge sharing and skills.
